

Agenda for SGQG Guild Meeting: April 12, 2022

Call to order: 10:05 a.m.

Attendance and guests: 39 members and 4 guests

Approval of minutes of last board meeting: Motioned and Seconded

Sandra Mollon Lecture

Board Reports:

President – Ulla Doty has resigned her position as VP.

Mail: Roseville Quilt show notice

Vice President Penni:

If anyone would like to teach a class or give a trunk show, let Penni know.

Treasurer:

[REDACTED]

Secretary: Nothing

Old Business:

No chair for opportunity quilt yet. Tickets for opportunity quilt will be distributed next guild meeting. It was suggested to take a picture of the quilt to show anyone who's interested in buying tickets.

Committee Reports:

Librarian Hilde said she has landscape quilt books available.

Animal bed committee chair, Sandy Askin said she's donated over 1000 dog beds to date.

Mary Foster spoke for chemo cap committee chair Carol Bradas stating chemo caps are donated to STARS. Knit, crochet or sew fleece caps. Carol will give a demonstration next month and bring box of materials.

Community quilt committee chair, Janis Beach stated batting is needed because Annie's stopped selling batting by the roll. They have 3 bins of flannel for children's quilts. They will also be making a large donation soon.

New Business:

Sam King would like to resign his position as web master. Corrine Brown volunteered to take over.

Patty Carr read minutes due to website still being down. Motion to approve carried.

Sue Green spoke for Pat Bjerke about the round robin bags for community quilts.

Penny Domonici asked for donations for the 2023 quilt show.

Show and tell of finished projects from Anelie Beldon's class.

Raffle chair Pam Gremore asked to bring one or five dollar bill to buy tickets instead of 20s.

Adjourn: 12:48 p.m.