PRESIDENT'S REPORT PATTY CARR

Pam Bennett has volunteered to be our greeter.

A suggestion box will be placed on the front table for any comments, questions or announcements.

VICE PRESIDENT ULLA DOTY AND PENNI PARSONS

Kathy Allen suggested having her workshop at her home.

February 8, Rami Kim will lecture.

Also, if you signed up for Patty Carr's class, you need to pay for it.

March 8, Anelie Belden will lecture and have a workshop on Dancing Dresden on March 9.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Sue Green asked that everyone interested in membership pay their dues by January 31, 2022.

Kathy Beach announced that our community outreach has distributed quilts, wall quilts, clothing protectors, bags of toys, Christmas stockings, small blankets and hats to Amador Pregnancy Help Center, Amador Residential Center, Gold Quartz Inn Senior Retirement Home, Interfaith Food Bank, Jackson Garden, Kit Carson Rehab and Operation Care.

Hilde Langlet is taking requests for library books.

SHOW RAFFLE PRIZES: No raffle for January. One ticket was given to every member for a drawing for two door prizes. Winners were Linda Perkins and Devon Hand.

NEW BUSINESS

Michelle Kelley suggested we put information about the suggested charities in the newsletter before we decide and vote on which charity to donate to this year.

Rose Kester suggested revisiting our email and phone notification when a meeting is cancelled. She never received notification and showed up for the cancelled December meeting.

This year our guild will turn 40 years old. It was suggested by Patty Carr that we have a BBQ potluck to celebrate in the Spring or Summer.

Audit committee is needed to audit the books and quilt show amounts. Sue Green and Pat Bjerke volunteered.

OPPORTUNITY QUILT

Drawing was held for the coveted opportunity quilt. Carol Garrett was the winner.

Penni Parsons sold the most tickets (75) and was awarded free membership to the Guild.

A new committee for the Opportunity Quilt is needed for 2022.

SHOW AND TELL

Beautiful quilts were show today.

ADJOURNED AT: 12:20 p.m.

Respectfully submitted

Rhonda Simpson, Secretary
