

SGQG Guild Meeting: July 11, 2023: Call to order: 10:00 a.m.

Attendance and guests: 39 members, 1 guest

Approval of minutes: June

Board Reports:

President: Pioneer guild is here with their opportunity quilt. We need a new hospitality chair as Elizabeth Schmidt is stepping down.

Mail: None

Vice President: Chemo caps workshop tomorrow has been cancelled. August, we have paper piecing with Louise Myers. For September Anelie Belden will have a free motion workshop. October and November will be community workshops and our annual potluck in December.

Treasurer:

Secretary: Nothing

New Business:

Discussion regarding inspiration quilt. Motioned and seconded to have inspiration quilt in a silent auction with starting bid at $1,000.00 (with verbiage to reserve rights to sell or not) at guild's quilt show in October. Selling quilt pins at quilt show for $8. Or $5. to members. Barbara Garcia to keep track of sales of pins.

Old Business:

Discussion regarding 501C Committee. Note read by President Patty Carr attached to these minutes for accuracy.

Committee Reports:

Hilde Langlet: Please return any library book you've checked out and are no longer using. More quilt show window volunteers needed, also, I still have challenge quilt materials available.

Kathy Beach: If you need batting for community quilts, please call us ahead of the meeting and we'll bring what you need to the meeting. I also have bib patterns some have been requesting.

Mary Foster: Michelle Jones will bring community quilts back in August. We also need donations for the food bank.

Joan Edson: Demonstration on usage of vignettes for our quilts. Remember the fire and ADA regulations.

Debby Sweeten: We need volunteers for the entry table which are two-hour shifts.

Penny Dominici: We need volunteers for our table at the Amador fair.

Pat Bjerke: Boutique entry is $10. Submit to me your inventory list. Need your items tagged and priced.

Sue Green: Quilt entry forms due in August but quilts need to be completed by October 5th. Need more quilts to display as I only have approximately 50.

Sandy Askin: Turn in your small quilts and your dog beds.

Kathy Scott: Tiny quilts can be up to 100 inches around.

Show and tell

Adjourn: 12:01 p.m.