President’s Message

Greetings!

Now that we’ve had time to recover from the hustle of the quilt show, it’s on to the holidays!

Let’s get going on Christmas gift projects! If you have projects to share that might inspire us please bring them for “Show and Tell”.

Also on that note please bring any Christmas stockings you’ve made from last month’s workshop. If you were unable to make a stocking, there is still time, or perhaps you can bring some toys (small items) to help fill the stockings. I think hair ties, socks, etc. might be a nice stocking stuffer also?

I also reminded everyone at last’s month meeting that we would like to do the placemats again this year so those who receive a holiday meal would have a nice holiday placemat to know they are thought of at the holidays even if they don’t have family to share it with. If you can make one or more, please bring it to the December luncheon.

This lovely fall weather makes our sewing area a great place to spend our time.

We have been busy with out of town friends and family. They love the mountains this time of year, and even though my projects are calling I enjoy those visits even more!

Hope you are all doing well, and look forward to seeing you at the guild meeting!

Patty

INTERVIEW WITH GUILD MEMBER JOAN ROGERS

SGQG: How long have you lived in this area?

JR: My husband Rich of 33 years and I have lived here for 33 years. First in Volcano then to Sutter Creek but now we're in Ione. I was born in Fresno and grew up in Kerman.

SGQG: Are you retired?

JR: Yes, I've been retired for 9 years. I was a telephone operator for Pacific Bell and then it turned to AT&T. I was a clerk at Mule Creek State Prison in vocational education for a couple of years. From there I went to the District Office for Amador County Unified School District as an Administrative Assistant for about 20 years.

SGQG: How long have you been a member of SGQG?

JR: Joanne Kerner invited me about 3 years ago. She told me the guild offered classes and that struck my interest.

SGQG: Are you interested in taking workshops and classes.

JR: Yes, I've taken advantage of a lot of the guild's workshops and also am enrolled in Anelie Belden's classes at Jackson's Senior Center.

SGQG: Do you prefer traditional or art quilts? Also, how long have you been quilting?

JR: I've been quilting for about five years but sewing has always been a part of my life. I do lean more towards art quilts and am eager to learn more about collage quilts. I've completed one Laura Heine pattern of an angel. My first quilt that I finished alone was made from vintage quilt blocks, backing and batting that I purchased at garage sales. I quilt for the fun of it, not for the points.

SGQG: Do you have other hobbies, besides quilting?

JR: Yes. I love going to garage/estate sales and to garden, both with my sweet husband. We love our local church family. We have no children but lots of nieces and nephews, a dog and two cats.

SGQG: Coke or Pepsi

JR: Diet Pepsi

I want to thank you all for continuing to make the dog beds. If you would like to arrange for a pick up or meet. Email or call me. I'm in the directory Thanks, Sandy

Community Outreach

Janis and Kathy Beach

Dear Friends,
Time is coming for Kathy and I to get all our donation items ready for delivery. This takes considerable work to get everything divided up and ready for distributing to our charities. Please if you are working on Christmas stockings bring them to the next meeting as they go out early.
Unfortunately I will not be able to attend the next meeting as I have a Dr. visit in Sacramento. Bad scheduling on my part two months in a row. The main thing right now is getting our things ready for delivery, now that's important!
When I get my calendar in order I'll see you all again. Janis Beach

NOVEMBER BIRTHDAYS

Michelle Kelley
 Joanne Joseph
 Sam King
 DaDonna Freeman
 Karen Pellizzer

There aren't enough ways to say thank you for all that our members did to make our Country Store a success, but I'll try.

Thanks for showing up each month to sort, fold, price and label our donations.

Thanks for making donations throughout the two year period between quilt shows.

Thanks to retiring quilters/members who gave so generously from their stashes.

Thanks for securing the Pine Grove Mobile Estates Clubhouse each month so we'd have a place to work.

Thanks for setting up the tables, risers and ironing board/iron in the Clubhouse.

Thanks for calling me and bringing over bags of donated fabric.

Thanks for taking bins to storage, your garage, or your home when things no longer fit in my garage.

Thanks for pricing the books, patterns and notions.

Thanks for helping us get rid of the bolts and learn to fold fabric on comic board boards.

Thanks for bringing the bins you stored to the Show. And thanks for taking unsold things to our storage unit, your garage or my garage.

Thanks for helping paper piece and assemble the cards for the Store.

Thanks for helping set up the Country Store.

Thanks for being a cashier, teller or fabric organizer during the Quilt Show.

Thanks for helping pack up the Country Store.

Thanks for hauling our "stuff" to and from the Quilt Show.

Thanks for accepting only a $5 discount when you'd worked all day and were sore and tired.

Thanks for accepting our huge pile of unsold goods for the thrift store.

Thanks for all the things I forgot to mention.

Thanks for putting up with my shortcomings with a smile and understanding. And... and...and...Thanks to Penni Parsons and friends who are taking over the Country Store for the 2025 Quilt Show.

It's been fun working with all our members.

Penny Dominici

Country Store Chair, 2023, 2021, 2019?

Quilt show chairs: Please make sure you have submitted your bills and updated the binder with a copy for my binder. Short closing meeting for year 2023. Binders are to be collected so they can go into storage.

2025 Has been booked at the fairgrounds - first Wed-Sat. in October.

Quilt Show Vignettes

Joan Edson

The Quilt Show Vignettes were much appreciated by quilt show visitors. Several of our Guild Members designed their own vignettes which so personalized their quilt display. The following members did a great job: Hilde Langley, Barbara Garcia, Judy Garcia, Elizabeth Schmidt, Terrie VanScyoc, Sandy Askin, Patty Carr and Pam Gremore.

Pam Gremore has volunteered to be the vignette cochair for the next Quilt Show. She brings new enthusiasm and I look forward to working with her.

Our committee is now welcoming the donation of items that can be used for vignettes for the next quilt show. There are few useable items in the Guild Storage Unit at the present time. Please think about the Guild Vignettes when decluttering, cleaning out or moving. Particularly desirable are flower arrangements, small tables or plant stands, interesting objects, round tablecloths. A labeled plastic container will be at each meeting for your donations. Thank you in advance.

Basket Raffle

Cherida Gruenfeldt and Rhonda Simpson

We would like to thank all that helped sort items and arrange the 25 baskets we had in auction. Thanks to Terry Van Scyoc, Jan Moran, Debby Sweeten, Becky Scholl, Sandy Wagner, Hilary Wagner, Susan Farrington, Patty Carr, Martha Barber, Louise Myers, Jean Heinl, Ridge Road Nursery, Blue Door Bakery, Kathy Allen and Aimee's Coffee Cabin for their donations. [REDACTED] and auctioned off all but two baskets.
